Visit to Parliament House

Rob Rindzevicius, Manni Seneviratne and I were fortunate to attend Government House on Tuesday Mar 13th, 2018, to see the Governor of Victoria, and her husband welcome our very own Rotary International President Ian Riseley and his wife Juliet to an afternoon tea at Government House.

Unfortunately Janine Reinking was a late withdrawal from our party due to illness. The afternoon started with a long wait at the gates until they were opened at 2PM and we, and probably 250+ others, made our way into the glorious grounds of Government house to park our cars and then enter the Grand Hall.

After a short wait the hall was full and at 3PM an officer introduced the official party, The Governor of Victoria, the Hon. Linda Dessau AC and her husband Mr Anthony Howard QC, Mr and Mrs Risely. The Governor spoke of the good work of Rotary and in particular the achievements of our President. Her Excellency is a Patron of the Rotary Club of Melbourne and she seemed quite versed in Rotary's and Mr. Risely's accomplishments, referencing our efforts in fighting Polio and Trachoma and our President's past efforts including his personal stance on getting women into Rotary.

After a short response from Mr Riesely the official proceedings over, we were invited to afternoon tea and to see the rooms of Government House.

Memories of cucumber sandwiches, historical photos of Her Majesty the Queen and her parents on various trips to Melbourne over the years, majestic art works and stunning art pieces, no doubt gifts to Governors from local and far away places and the gardens awash with the people of Rotary will stay with me forever. I thank the club for the honour of representing them at this event.

Lets have a laugh

Why did the manager hire the marsupial?
Because he was koala-fied.

Why do kangaroos hate rainy days? Because their children play inside.

I Why did the wombat cross the road? To see its flat mate

Why isn't the Australian national football team allowed to own a dog? Because they can't hold on to a lead.

When is a bear not a bear? If he doesn't have the right koalifications.

What do you call a lazy baby kangaroo? A pouch potato!

What did the Australian do after raking the leaves? He fell out of the tree

Why do Australian football players do so well in math? They know how to use their heads.

What do you call a talking kangaroo? A quantum leap.

How do you apologise to a koala? BEAR your heart and soul.

How does a kangaroo pick his favourite rugby team? He jumps on the bandwagon.

What kind of music do kangaroos listen to?
Hip Hop!

Just for an extra chuckle
